ABOUT THE COLLEGE:

St Joseph's College is a prestigious educational institution with a rich history. Although the college was established in 2009, St Joseph's institutions in Hassan have a much older legacy dating back to 1957 - making it one of the oldest educational institutions in Hassan. The College is managed by the Jesuits, who oversee more than 4,000 schools and colleges worldwide, educating over 30 lakh students.

Preparing 'Men & Women for Others' has been the primary objective of Jesuit education. In India, several other renowned Jesuit run educational institutions include Loyola College in Chennai, St Xavier's University in Kolkata, St Xavier's College in Mumbai, St Joseph's College in Tiruchirapalli, Andhra Loyola College in Vijayawada, St Joseph's University in Bengaluru, St Aloysius Deemed to be University in Mangaluru, XLRI in Jamshedpur, XIM University in Bhubaneswar, among others.

Presently, the College offers B.COM, BBA, BCA and M.COM programmes.
